

Center for Teaching and Learning Computer Lab Policy

Center for Teaching and Learning computer lab use is restricted to Delta State faculty, staff and students with a valid Delta State ID. Sharing of Delta State computing IDs and passwords is not allowed. Center Staff may ask individuals using equipment to produce a valid Delta State ID as proof of their age and enrollment status.

Children are only permitted in the lab if supervised by a parent or caretaker. Children under the age of 18 who are not students may not use the equipment.

Any individuals exhibiting disruptive or destructive behavior will be asked to leave the facilities. Lack of cooperation may be cause to call the University Police.

(Exceptions to this policy would include participants in DAAIS workshops or outside agencies utilizing the Training Lab.)
