

Moore Elected to the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi

Deborah Moore, Director of the Center for Community and Economic Development at Delta State University, has been elected to be a member of The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, the nation's oldest, largest and most selective all-discipline honor society. Moore is currently enrolled in the Human Capital Development Program at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

Standards for election to Phi Kappa Phi are extremely high. Membership is by invitation only to Southern Miss' top 7.5 percent of second-semester juniors and the top 10 percent of seniors and graduate students. Moore currently holds a 4.0 grade point average in the PhD program.

Moore stated, "This is an exciting as well as a challenging and rewarding time in my life. I am very happy to have been elected to be part of this great organization and I feel very distinguished to have received this honor". The initiation ceremony was held on Sunday, April 27, 2008 at 1:30 p.m. in Ballroom One of the Thad Cochran Center on the campus of the University in Hattiesburg, Mississippi.
