

child development

- Are you tolerant of other people's beliefs on child rearing, family, and religion?
- Do you think children can learn anything by playing?
- Do you feel that you can make a difference in a child's life in a few hours of your time? If so, how?
- Do you think children should eat everything on their plate?
- Is it okay to let a child fall asleep in the crib with a bottle of formula in his/her mouth?
- What do you think is the best way to warm up a bottle for a child?
- Describe three ways to burp a baby.
- How much water does it take for a child to drown?
- What would you do if you are caring for a child that is openly defiant and argues with you constantly?
- What would you do if you arrived at work and noticed a child throwing up for no apparent reason?
- How do you thaw and warm frozen breast milk?
- What would you do if a parent was three hours late to pick up his/her child and did not call?
- Why do you think you are capable of caring for children?
- Do you know the signs of a child being abused?
- What activities do you think might interest a toddler?
- Do you know CPR? If so, have you ever had to use it on a child before?
- What is your overall philosophy of raising children?
- Do you think it's safe to put down a newborn on a table or a couch for a few minutes?
- How do you handle kids if they are bored?
- How do you handle a child if he or she has a temper tantrum?
- If a child fell and hit his head, what would you do?
- What techniques do you use to put parents minds at ease when you first meet them?
- What are appropriate types of punishment for misbehavior?
- Will there be differences in the bowel movements of a breast fed baby?
- Do you believe in offering rewards to a child for good behavior? If what, what are appropriate types of rewards?
- What do you do if the baby cries for the first hour and a half you are there? How do you handle the child? What, if anything, do you tell the parent?