4. Nominations for Secretary.
 - a. Jesse Kelley was nominated and approved without dissent.
5. Brown bags
 - a. Agreed that Ann Wright would conduct first brown bag on October 31st.
 - b. Agreed that advertisement to DSU community would come from fliers, email, and website.
6. Panel discussion
 - a. Agreed that blues and domestic violence panel may be an unwise choice for panel discussion since DSU just hosted major blues event and that the academic community may enjoy this topic but may not attract a broader audience.
 - b. Chief Buford was brought up as a possible speaker. Argument against was that the GSG should broaden our outreach and invite other community members rather than members only from the University. Chief Bingham, Chief of Cleveland Police was mentioned. No decisions were made.
 - c. Date was decided to be November 6 between the hours of 7-8.
 - d. OIT will provide projector and other audio/visual equipment.
 - e. Discussion questions from the group requested to help foster the Q&A session of the panel discussion.
 - f. Refreshments will be provided and secured by the QEP
 - g. Karen Bell will look for educational materials to be distributed at the event.
 - h. Glendscene Williams will contact Our House, Inc. for speaker suggestions .
