

The DSU Gender Studies Group (GSG) hosts bi-monthly Brown Bag Lectures on a variety of topics dealing with gender related issues. We will be hosting a Student Showcase Brown Bag Lecture on April 17th from 12-1p.m. in Kethley Hall, room 229. We are inviting faculty to recommend students (undergraduate or graduate) who have completed an outstanding paper or project on a gender related issue this academic year to submit an abstract for consideration. Up to four abstracts will be selected for presentation.

The abstract should include the information outlined below and be emailed as a Word Document to Dr. Leslie Green-Pimentel, Chair of the GSG (lgreenpimentel@deltastate.edu) by April 1, 2015. Students whose abstracts are accepted will be invited to give a 10-12 minute presentation on their paper/project. Students from all majors are encouraged to apply.

- Student Name
- Student College / Major / Rank
- Professor recommending student
- Professor's contact information
- Title of Presentation
- Abstract summarizing paper/project (150-200 words)

Questions may be directed to Dr. Green-Pimentel at the email address listed above. We look forward to receiving your outstanding students' abstracts!
