Honors Program
Application Form
STUDENT APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Name of Applicant: _____

1. Honors Program Application form with applicant's signature
2. Student Resume (awards, work experience, leadership, extracurricular, community, volunteer, and community service activities)
3. Essay 1: Autobiography essay (350-500 words)
4. Essay 2: Please write on the following topic (500-700 words)
Imagine that by chance you read some harmful comments and saw some embarrassing photos about a fellow college student that was posted anonymously on a social media website. As a result of the embarrassment and humiliation, this student intends to drop out for the rest of the academic year. Given the comments and the photos, you know the number of students who could have posted this information might be very small. If you were an Honors fellow, how would you deal with this situation? If you were a student leader in the Honors Program Association, please describe a campaign that you would organize with other students in the Honors Program to bring awareness to the issue of student cyberbullying on campus.
5. Confidential Letter of Recommendation #1 in a sealed envelope with signature from referee outside of the envelope across the flap.
6. Confidential Letter of Recommendation #2 in a sealed envelope with signature from referee outside of the envelope across the flap.
7. One official copy of a current High School Transcript (sent by the school) and college transcripts (if any) must be submitted to Delta State University.

The priority deadline for all application materials is APRIL 30TH. Only COMPLETED applications will be considered. Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit all of their application items together to:
