

Student Affairs

- In collaboration with Extra Table and the School of Social Work, established the campus food pantry, The Statesman Shelf
- Sponsored the annual international festival, Culture on the Quad

University Health Center's Office of Campus Counseling

- The DSU C.A.R.E.S. online reporting system for identifying students in crisis went live on the DSU web page on April 8, 2019
- The Counseling Center (CC) had 251 new clients and 1,425 appointments
- The CC collaborated with 7 different state agencies to offer a community-wide town hall meeting on "Opioids"
- Collaborated with VA Health Care of Memphis to offer suicide prevention training to students
- Collaborated with the Women's Conference to provide mental health expertise for the screening of HBO's The Tale
- Collaborated with the Student Government Association to offer Mental Health Awareness Week and trainings

Housing and Residence Life

- Added security cameras to the Hill Apartment Complex
- Brumby-Castle renovation
- A chapter room space was added in Cain-Tatum

Career Counseling and Placement

- The Okra Suits business attire closet was established and overwhelmingly successful in its inaugural year
- Okra Works Part Time Job Fair had 97 attendees
- Career Fair Employer Attendance: fall – 99 employers registered; spring – 122 employers registered
- Counseling Module: 520 appointments for the 2018-19 year

Internships

- Fed Ex Internal Audit
- International Paper
- MS State Audit
- Blue Cross Blue Shield
- Double Quick
- C Spire

Enrollment Management

- Averaged more than 300 weekly visits to high schools and community colleges—spring 2019
- More than 1,000 future Statesmen applied on DSU Application Days
- 440 high school and community college students are members of the newly established pipeline for recruitment, the Statesmen Club
- Exceeded prior year attendance and registration for New Student Orientations—fall 2019
- 20 MS school districts are now participating in the Dual Credit Program

University Police

- Conducted several CRASE (Citizen Response to Active Shooter Events) trainings for faculty, staff, and students, including a mandatory freshman training in fall 2018 SOW.
- Conducted residence hall meetings on security and safety while on campus.
- Conducted Alcohol and Drug Awareness programming with campus Greek Life.
- Supported 2nd Annual “Mile in Her Shoes” and domestic violence awareness programming
- Officers attended Our House domestic violence training in Greenville, MS
- Conducted safety drills, including the Okra Alert Test per semester
- Officers underwent semi-annual firearms training and qualifications
- Officers participated in Advanced Active Shooter Response on campus led by Homeland Security.
- Officers completed in-service records training
- Dispatchers participated in 911 operator training and continuing education courses.
- UPD staff attended Incident Command trainings during the Emergency Response Conference at MSU
- Three staff participated in the ARMS conference in New Orleans on new federal reporting standards.
- Cmdr. Curry attended Gang Awareness Training
- Chief Johns attended Clery Act and Summer Legal updates training
- Summer review of EOP completed and update will be issued prior to start of Fall Semester
- Preparing for an onsite visit from Accreditation

Office of Student Life

- Collaborated with the Office of Student Affairs for the screening of HBO’s The Tale to bring awareness to sexual assault
- Hosted the 3rd Annual Women’s Conference
- Collaborated with the Office of Student Affairs to host the Walk a Mile in Her Shoes International Men’s March to raise awareness about sexual assault and domestic abuse
- Assisted SGA in planning and hosting their annual Student Legislative Day at the Capitol