

Bates Hall, Boston Public Library

Professor Garry Jennings Professor of Political Science and Director of The Madison Center

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

- Ph.D., The University of Maryland, Public Law M.A.,
- The University of Maryland, Political Philosophy B.A.,
- The University of Maryland, Political Science and English

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Political Philosophy, Political Theory, Law, Judicial Behavior
- Directing the campus center for political engagement focusing on public policy and electoral politics and the Washington Semester Program
- Curricula for study abroad courses exposing students to different legal and political cultures, languages and traditions
- Community engagement projects supporting educational outreach in the Mississippi Delta region.
- Internship supervision and service learning projects consistent with the Madison Center's objectives

Office: Suite D, Kethley Hall

Phone: (662) 846-4107

E-mail: jennings@deltastate.edu

Curriculum Vitae

Joined Delta State in 1994

COURSES TAUGHT

- Introduction to Political Science
- Classical to Medieval Political Philosophy
- Renaissance to Modern Political Theory
- American Constitutional Theory
- Constitutional Law
- Civil Liberties-Civil Rights
- Civil Rights Law
- Judicial Process
- Criminal Law
- The American Mind and Vietnam
- Economic and Political Rationality
- Politics & Video Workshop
- Advanced International Seminar

- Colonial & Revolutionary Boston
- Washington Semester Program

RESEARCH INTERESTS AND ACTIVITIES

- Civil Rights Law
- Judicial Behavior
- Race
- Public Opinion
- Politics and Social Media
- The Troubles in Northern Ireland
- Political Philosophy
- Pre-Law Advisor