

Dr. Sujung Cho

Assistant Professor of Social Justice and Criminology

Office: 220 Kethley Hall

Phone: (662) 846-4094

E-mail: scho@deltastate.edu

Curriculum Vitae

Joined Delta State in 2015

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

- Ph.D. (2015) University of Cincinnati, Criminal Justice
- M.S. (2015) University of Cincinnati, Statistics
- M.S. (2008) Hansung University, International Drug Criminology
- B.A. (2000) Chungnam National University, German Language and Literature
- National Central Police Academy (2000)

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Criminology and Juvenile Deviance/Victimization
- Cyber Crime/Victimization
- Quantitative Research Programming (SAS, SPSS, STATA, AMOS, HLM, R, and M-Plus)
- Longitudinal Study [Latent Growth Modeling (LGM), Mixture Modeling with Cross-Sectional Data/Longitudinal Data, Multilevel Modeling with Complex Survey Data, Multilevel Mixture Modeling, Multilevel growth Modeling, Missing Data Modeling and Bayesian Analysis, Monte Carlo Simulation Studies]

COURSES TAUGHT

- Criminal Justice Policy and Practice
- Criminology
- Race, Crime and the Law
- Criminal Justice System
- Juvenile Justice System
- Professional and Institutional Ethics

RESEARCH INTERESTS AND ACTIVITIES

- Bullying/Peer Victimization
- Cyberbullying Victimization
- Poly-Victimization
- Family Violence
- School Violence/ Victimization
- School Social Work
- Juvenile Delinquency/Victimization
- Cultural Diversity
- International Social Work