

Dr. Shannon S. Lamb

Geographer and Coordinator Social Sciences
Education

Education

- Doctor of Education, Delta State University, 2014
- Master of Education: Geography Concentration, Delta State University, May 2007
- Bachelor of Science in Education, Delta State University, May 2003

Office: 212 Kethley Hall

Phone: (662) 846-4098

E-mail: slamb@deltastate.edu

Curriculum Vitae

Joined Delta State in 2009

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Geography of Crime
- Economic Geography
- Social Science Education
- High Stakes Testing

Courses Taught: Undergraduate Geography: (a) World Regional Geography (b) Introduction to Human Geography (c) The Geography of Africa (d) Cultural Geography (e) Economic Geography (f) Special Topics in Geography (g) Professional Geography (h) The Geography of Crime (i) The Geography of Multiculturalism and the U.S. Criminal Justice System (j) Geography in the Digital Age

Graduate Geography: (a) Special Topics in Geography (b) Professional Geography (c) Economic Geography
Undergraduate Education: (a) Methods in Teaching Secondary Social Studies (b) Methods in Teaching Secondary Social Studies II (c) Social Sciences in the Secondary Schools (d) Special Topics in Social Science Education (e) Directed Teaching

Graduate Education: (a) Trends in Teaching the Social Sciences (b) Social Sciences in the Secondary Schools (c) Directed Teaching

Research Interests: Geography: Post Conflict Landscapes, the Suppression of Public Memory, Public Memory, and Public Space.
Education: Stakeholder Perceptions of High Stakes Testing, and Achievement Outcome Prediction