DELTA STATE UNIVERSITY
GRADUATE STUDIES

Non-Degree Status

Name: Last First	Social Security #	Semester

To enroll in coursework, non-degree students must have permission from the chair or graduate coordinator of the department in which the courses are offered. It should be understood that no department is obligated to accept coursework taken by students in non-degree status.

The department chair/graduate coordinator has to sign this form indicating approval for the student to enroll in the classes listed. The non-degree student is to return this form to the Graduate Studies Office for registration.
