Amanda wakes up very early. Her mom drives her to the ice rink. Amanda has a two-hour skating practice before school. Her coach has her start with basic skills. Then, Amanda works on her routines. She can almost do a triple turn. Amanda tries and tries. Her coach helps her with the spin and landing. Amanda does the turn again. This time she does it perfectly. Her coach talks to her at the end of her practice. He asks Amanda if she would like to go to the Olympic tryouts. He thinks she is good enough to make the team. Amanda tells her coach that she will go to the tryouts. She is excited. Amanda has worked long and hard on her skating. She loves to ice skate and is good at it. She cannot wait to get to school to tell her friends.

1. What event happens at the beginning of the story?
   A. Amanda does the turn perfectly.
   B. Her coach talks to her at the end of practice.
   C. Amanda wakes up very early.

2. What event happens at the end of the story?
   A. Amanda works hard on her routines.
   B. Amanda's mom drives her to the ice rink.
   C. Amanda's coach asks if she would like to go to the Olympic tryouts.

3. What do you know about Amanda from the story?
   A. She works and trains hard to be a good ice skater.
   B. She does not really like to ice skate.
   C. She thinks she is not good enough to try out for the Olympics.