main characters: the colonists;
setting: east coast of America;
problem: The colonists wanted their independence from Britain. solution: Delegates met to try to help gain independence from Britain. When their efforts did not work, they agreed to go to war.