

Unit Missions

UA Mission Statement

Mission statement

The University Archives & Museum, serving as a unit of Library Services, collects, preserves and provides access to materials relating to the history and heritage of the Mississippi Delta and the institutional records of Delta State University.