Unit Goals

 STACT 2013_01: Increase Student Participation

Start: 7/1/2012

End: 6/30/2013

Unit Goal

Increase student participation in SGA Brown Bag and voting in SGA election by 5%.

Evaluation Procedures

A count in the number of students that participated in Brown Bag and voted in SGA elections will be taken and compared to participants in previous year.

Actual Results of Evaluation

The name of Brown Bag was changed in an effort to make students and faculty better understand the purpose of the event. DSU Legislative Day participation increased from 15 students to 80 students. This was an increase of approximately 300%. The number of students voting in SGA elections did not increase by 5%.

Use of Evaluation Results

Continued efforts will be made in publicizing SGA elections and DSU Legislative Day (Brown Bag). Ways to increase participation in SGA elections will be discussed. Efforts to maintain the increased participation in DSU Legislative Day will be made.

Section IV.a Brief Description

Judgment

Meets Standards Does Not Meet Standards Not Applicable

Narrative

Student Activities are designed to enhance the co-curricular education of the student body. The Student Government Association, Union Program Council and the University Pageant Board provide diverse programs and services to the university community. Program and services provided promote cultural, intellectual, social, and leadership development, while enhancing understanding and fellowship among students, faculty, and staff by providing informal association outside the classroom.

Section IV.b Comparative data

Enrollment, CHP, majors, graduation rates, expenditures, trends, etc.

Narrative

The Student Government Association, under the direction of the SGA Cabinet and advisement of the Coordinator of Student Activities, sponsored over twenty events with approximately 4,000 students participating. In addition to three campus wide elections, the SGA also sponsored homecoming activities, voter registrations, campus clean-ups, International student dinners, cook-outs for athletic events, multicultural events and Hall of Fame Banquet, to name a few. The SGA was active in legislative affairs, sponsoring the Annual DSU Student Legislative Luncheon in Jackson. Eighty students made the trip to the Capital and had the opportunity to meet with ninety legislatures to lobby for Delta State. In addition to the six elected positions on the SGA sixty-seven students served in leadership positions on the SGA.

The Union Program Council, under the director of the Student Director of the Union and advisement of the Coordinator of Student Activities, programmed approximately twenty-three events including Welcome Week and Springfest. A total of over 5,500 students attended/participated in these events. Thirty students served on the Union Program Council.

The University Pageant Board produced the Most Beautiful Pageant under the direction of the Student Director of University Pageants and advisement of the Coordinator of Student Activities who serves as Executive Director. The Miss Delta State University Pageant was not produced due to the lack of required number of contestants. Fifteen students served on the University Pageant Board and 6 students performed in the productions. There were twenty- eight contestants in the Most Beautiful Pageant.

Section IV.c Diversity Compliance Initiatives and Progress

Judgment

Narrative

All activities sponsored by Delta State University organizations are open to every student regardless of race, creed, color, or national origin. Many of these activities are under the jurisdiction of the Union Program Council or the Student Government Association, which functions under the auspices of the Vice President of Student Affairs. Any student who meets the qualifications is eligible to hold an office or membership within these organizations. During the 2012-2013 academic year there were two minorities on the SGA President's Cabinet, fifteen minorities on the Student Senate, four minorities on the Student Court, and eighteen minorities on the Union Program Council. There were two minorities on the University Pageant Board. Of the twenty-eight contestants in the Most Beautiful Pageant six were minorities.
