DCCL 02: UO sustained operation

Start: 7/1/2013

End: 6/30/2014

User Outcome

The Delta Center will continue to operate in an effective manner and provide services to the University and the people of the State of Mississippi. As managing entity of the MS Delta National Heritage Area, we can further our mission and goals.

Data Collection (Evidence)

The DSU Delta Center for Culture and Learning was told in May of 2008 that all staff lines were abolished. Over the course of the next six months, it was further told that its director's salary line was reduced by 50%, and abolished as a salary line, with 50% funding to continue in the 2010-2011 fiscal year, 25% funding in the 2011-2012 fiscal year and 0% funding thereafter. This would effectively close the Delta Center. In June of 2009, the State Legislature set aside $150,000 to continue support for the Center as a line item in the annual budget. This support was renewed in the budget for 2010-2011, renewed again in the budget for 2011-2012, and most recently renewed again for 2012-2013. This insures the continued operation of the Center through June of 2013, with the exception of our service learning programs which were closed upon the resignation of their coordinator and our failure to re-hire due to budget cuts and hiring freezes.

 DCCL 03: UO National Heritage Area

Start: 7/1/2013

End: 6/30/2014

User Outcome

The Delta Center will continue to be the Phase 1 Management Entity for the Mississippi Delta National Heritage Area (MDNHA)

Data Collection (Evidence)

The Delta Center was named the Phase One Management Entity in March of 2011. Since that time, we have contracted with the National Endowment for Historic Preservation to develop a management plan, and we now supervise the planning process. We have held community/public meetings to give information out about the MDNHA and to get input as to what the community is expecting. We developed an inventory of valuable delta resources located throughout the 18 MD Delta Counties. This can be viewed at <http://www.msdeltaheritage.com/>.
