

Dr. Vicki Tinnon

Assistant Professor of Geography and Sustainable Development

- Ph.D. Kansas State University, Geography
- M.S. University of Alabama, Geography
- B.S./B.A. University of South Alabama, Geography/History

Office: Kethley 214

Phone: (662) 846-4097

E-mail: vtinnonbrock@deltastate.edu

Undergraduate courses taught: Introduction to Human Geography, Physical Geography, World Regional Geography, Cultural Geography, Political Geography, Economic Geography, Conservation of Natural Resources, Geography of the United States, Geography of Latin America, Geography of Europe, Geography of Africa, Geography of Asia and the Pacific, and China and Japan

Graduate courses taught: Cultural Geography, Political Geography, Economic Geography, Conservation of Natural Resources, Geography of the United States, Geography of Latin America, Geography of Europe, Geography of Africa, Geography of Asia and the Pacific, China and Japan, Advanced International Study, Professional Geography, and Advanced Research Methods in Geography

Research: Environmental Justice, Health Inequity and Inequality, Perception of the Environment on Health, Natural Hazards and Disasters, Women in Physical Geography, Jewish Settlement in the American Southwest.

Service: MA-LS Program Coordinator for Globalization Studies Track. Program Coordinator for Master of Education in Secondary Education - Social Sciences. Gender Studies Group.