

GUIDELINES

Delta State University Alumni Association Service Awards

The Delta State University Alumni Association shall annually identify and recognize individuals who have distinguished themselves through their service and contributions to Delta State University.

Recipients of the designated service awards are to be recognized at the Homecoming Luncheon, sponsored by the DSU Alumni Association and held in conjunction with annual Homecoming activities of Delta State University.

PURPOSE:

To honor and recognize individuals “in the trenches” who have demonstrated continuing loyalty and service to Delta State University.

It is intended that these awards be made to individuals who, in the opinions of a designated selection committee, have given of their time, efforts, and support to Delta State University and the DSU Alumni Association activities over a substantial period of time.

AWARDS:

The following service awards are to be presented annually:

The Hugh Ellis Walker Alumni Service Award- Presented annually to recognize outstanding service and contributions by an alumnus.

The Gladys Castle “Friend of Delta State” Service Award- presented annually to recognize outstanding service and contributions by a non-alumnus.

The Kent Wyatt “Young Alumnus’ Service Award- presented annually to recognize outstanding service and contributions by a young alumnus (36 years of age or younger).
