

Susan Parkinson Lee

1111 Main Street
Indianola, MS 38751
slee@deltastate.edu
(662) 846-4405

Education

Ed. S., School Administration

Dec., 2003 Delta State University

M. Ed., Curriculum and Supervision

May, 1998 Delta State University

Bachelor of Science, Education

Jan., 1972 Mississippi State University

High School Graduation

May, 1977 Greenwood High School, Greenwood, MS

Administration Certification

June, 1998, Delta State University

Business Education Certification

June, 1996 Mississippi State University

Elementary Education Certification

Jan., 1972 Mississippi State University

Professional experience

Director, Office of Field Experiences

Director, Technology - College of Education

2004 – Present Delta State University

Adjunct Professor, Educational Leadership

2005 - Present Delta State University

Elementary/Secondary Teacher

1986 - 2003 Indianola School District, Indianola, MS

Owner/Operator

1986 - 1994 SuAn Collections, Indianola, MS

Instructor, Private Piano

1988 - 1986 The Indianola Academy, Indianola, MS

Scholarly activity

Lee, S. (2006, March). Best Practices and Exemplary Applications of Technology in the College of Education at Delta State University. Session presented at Creating Future Through Technology Conference, Tunica, MS

Lee, S., Trammell, G. and Roberts, M. (2006, March). Creating Future Through Technology Presentation: Beyond the Basics: A Model for Optimizing Technology Assets. Session presented at Creating Future Through Technology Conference, Tunica, MS

Lee, S. (2006, June). Best Practices and Exemplary Applications of Technology at Delta State University. Session presented at Association of Small Computer Users in Education Conference, Myrtle Beach, NC

Lee, S. (2006, June). Best Practices and Exemplary Applications of Technology in Higher Education. Paper presented at The Clute Institute for American Research College Teaching and Learning Conference, Florence, Italy.

Lee, S. and Branton, C. (2003, November). Student Learning Compared Through the Use of Student PowerPoint Presentations and Traditional Teaching Methods. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Mid-South Educational Research Association, Biloxi, MS

Lee, S. and Branton, C. (2003). Student Learning Compared Through the Use of Student PowerPoint Presentations and Traditional Teaching Methods. Delta Education Journal, 1 (1), 11-15.

Professional Memberships and memberships

Phi Delta Kappa
William J. Fulbright Scholar
Who's Who Among American Teachers
Mississippi's 50 Exemplary/TeachNett Teachers
Cleveland Rotary Club
International Who's Who for Information Technology
Mississippi Delta Technology Council

Professional service

Delta State University:
NCATE Steering Committee, Conceptual Framework Committee,
Chairman, NCATE Standard Three Committee
College of Education Academic Council
Adjunct Graduate Faculty
Teacher Education Council
Chairman, Institutional Technology Governance Committee
Institutional Technology Strategic Planning Committee
Web Oversight Committee
Technology Across the Curriculum Committee
Distance Learning Committee – Policies and Administration
Okra One Card Committee
COE Technology Taskforce
COE Beautification Committee
COE Honors Day Committee
Health and Wellness Committee
Grades and Attendance Appeals Committee
Co-Director, E-learning Program
Co-Chairman, Delta State University College of Education
Academic Chairs' Conference

Public service/community activity

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church
Organist, Choir Director, and Children's Choir
Sunday School Teacher and Vacation Bible School teacher
Altar Guild
Nursery Volunteer
Worship Committee Chairman
Lector
President, Garden Club