

Learning Outcome	Data Collection and Analysis	Results of Evaluation
Students will demonstrate an ability to critically analyze social phenomena by applying key social science concepts.	1) Comprehensive Exams	Eleven out of Eleven students successfully passed the written comprehensive exam. All students performed exceptionally well on the first question, which asked students to write, at length, about the three main theoretical perspectives in the social sciences.	The Division of Educational Sciences make-up degree program

MEd in Secondary Education with a Concentration in Social Sciences