SEC Open House
ROMEIA Conference

Detailed Discussion

Faculty Development Workshops

- The SEC is responsible for conducting one campus-wide faculty development workshop and two college specific workshops during the academic year.
  - The ROMEIA: Faculty Development Conference will satisfy the campus-wide initiative.
  - The proposed college specific workshops are listed below:
    - Task Stream – College of Education
    - Faculty Technology Institute Follow-up: WebCT – College of Business
    - Smart Classrooms and Smart Carts – College of Arts and Sciences
    - Faculty Technology Institute Follow-up – School of Nursing
- An assessment tool needs to be developed for each workshop.

NSSE/FSSE Comparison

- SEC will analyze the 2003 and 2005 QEP Surveys.
  - Define goals and objectives.
  - Identify items of improvement at DSU.

QEP Steering Committee Update

- Paul Starkey is to send an updated roster of all members of the QEP Steering Committee.

SEC Open House

- Barry Campbell made a motion to re-schedule the Open House until the SEC web page is complete. Elaine Lambert seconded the motion.
- Lynn Byrd will find a student to work on the SEC web page. The SEC will pay the student for his/her work on the web page.

ROMEIA Conference

- SEC will present a faculty forum during the ROMEIA: Faculty Development Conference. Information that may be obtained during the session includes the following:
  - NSSE Data
  - FSSE Data
  - Quality Enhancement Plan
  - QEP Timeline
- The SEC will meet with Dr. James Eison, speaker of the ROMEIA Conference, Tuesday, September 27, 2005 at Crawdad's in Merigold, MS. The dinner meeting will start at 6:30 p.m.

The next SEC meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 4, 2005 at 3:00 p.m. in Bailey 200. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 4:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Lynn Byrd
