Reaching Out to Mississippi:  Education in Action 2006 Conference

Karen Fosheim, co-chair of the ROMEA Conference met with Paul Hankins to discuss SEC support of the ROMEA 2006 Conference. The SEC decided to donate $1000 to towards covering the expenses of the conference.

SEC Community-based learning Event

- Paul Hankins distributed copies of the service learning survey that was administered last year by the Service Learning Committee. SEC members should review the survey results to find possible topics for the CBL sessions.

- Barry Campbell will email the letter requesting potential panel members for the community-based learning event. It was suggested that panelist could recommend students to serve on the panel.

- Elaine Lambert talked with Paul Starkey regarding the creation of an evaluation tool for CBL. Paul Starkey will revisit this issue during the next SEC meeting.

- Jennie Gunn and Elaine Lambert will contact Delta Dining to order refreshments which will be served after the convocation on April 10 and during the break on April 11.

- Paul has secured the Delta and Pine Land Theater in the Bologna Performing Arts Center for the CBL convocation on April 10, 2006.

QEP Updates

- The QEP survey will be administered starting Monday, February 20, 2006.

- Per Billy Morehead, VP of Finance, the facility master plan has not been completed due to lack of funds.
The next SEC meeting will be held Tuesday, February 28, 2006 at 3:15 p.m. in Bailey 200. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 4:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
