

ATHLETIC TRAINING INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

- How well do you work in groups?
- What is an example of when you took charge of a group?
- Give an example of a time when a conflict arose and how did you handle it.
- When is a time you had a lot on your plate and how did you handle it?
- Where do you see yourself ending up? Where did you see yourself in 5 years?
- What is something people tell you that you need to work on?
- What is your definition of a professional?
- What qualities do you see in yourself that relate to you as a professional?
- What is the most difficult decision you've made and how did you arrive at decision?
- When is a time that you had to overcome a challenge?
- What is your greatest accomplishment?
- When did you have to do something that you did not agree with?
- Explain why some of your prerequisite grades were a bit lower than your other grades?
- Would you play on our softball team? If so, what position would you play?
- What would you bring to a potluck after the game?
- Why did you choose to pursue Athletic Trainer instead of another health profession such as a doctor or nurse?
- How would you approach an injured athlete?
- How would you introduce yourself?
- What type of questions would you ask the athlete?
- We've had to treat "non-athletes" such as piano and flute players. How would you handle an introduction to them, would you do anything different?
- How would you deal with a patient that was not motivated for treatment?
- How would you deal with an angry or upset athlete or patient?
- A soccer player kicks the ball and falls to the ground... what do you do?
- What do you have a low tolerance for?
- If a patient or athlete began bleeding profusely, what would you do?
- If any emergency occurred and you were the first person on site what would you do?

For more information, contact:

DSU Career Services

662-846-4646

<http://careerservices.deltastate.edu>

careerservices@deltastate.edu