WORKSHOP FOR 9TH-12TH
GRADE TEACHERS

This workshop equips teachers to teach students how to think critically about public policy using lessons that focus on government institutions, programs, the Federal Reserve, Social Security, and events such as the Panic of 1893. Students become informed citizens as they consider the tradeoffs involved in setting public policy. They learn to articulate their own views by evaluating primary and secondary sources, engaging in group activities and discussions, and writing brief essays.
