

TRANSIENT STUDENT GUIDELINES

- A student who is currently enrolled and actively pursuing a degree at another institution will be permitted to take classes at Delta State University on transient status.
- Students must submit an application for admission, application fee, a letter of good standing with signed approval, and an immunization record.
- A student who has been admitted as a transient student is not fully admitted to the University.
- Until earning full admission to the University by meeting the admission standards set forth by the Institutions of Higher Learning, all records, including transcripts, will designate “transient status.”
- Transient students are subject to University regulations regarding attendance and academic standing.
- It is the student’s responsibility to verify coursework completed at Delta State University will transfer to their degree seeking institution.
- Students will not be allowed to enroll in the following courses in an attempt to satisfy admission requirements: English Composition, College Algebra, and Laboratory based Science.
- Transient status also applies to off-campus courses.

I have read and fully understand the provisions of entering Delta State University as a transient student.
