

Important December 2025 Graduation Information

12/3/2025

Congratulations! This is a Celebration of your Academic Success!

Ceremony Date and Times:

- Location:
 - Walter Sillers Coliseum (located on the North side of the campus, West of Kent Wyatt Hall)
- Ceremony Times:
 - Friday, December 12th
 - 10:00 AM -- ALL graduate students and ALL undergraduate students

Graduation Canvas Shell

- All graduating students have been added to a graduation canvas shell managed by the Registrar's Office. This space includes important graduation and commencement updates, deadlines, and announcements. Please check the Canvas shell regularly to stay informed and ensure you don't miss any important information regarding the ceremony.

International Students

- International students who are not participating in the commencement ceremony may visit the Registrar's Office during the week of graduation to pick up a diploma cover. Diploma covers will be available during normal business hours.

Summer 2025 Graduation Participation:

- Degrees for all Summer 2025 graduates have been conferred. The $50 Graduation fee, along with any applicable late application fee, was assessed to your student account on July 25, 2025.
- If you planned to participate in the commencement ceremony but have since decided not to walk, please email the Registrar's Office at registrar@deltastate.edu.
- International students who are not participating in the commencement ceremony may visit the Registrar's Office during the week of graduation to pick up a diploma cover. Diploma covers will be available during normal business hours.

December 2025 Graduation Application and Fees:

- The final deadline to apply for the Fall 2025 semester was October 1st. If you missed the deadline, you will need to apply for the Spring 2026 semester. If you need to make any changes to your application, contact the Registrar's Office at registrar@deltastate.edu. Anyone who has applied for graduation during the late application period (July 2nd-Oct 1st) will be responsible for paying the $50 late graduation application fee.
- The graduation fee of $50 and the late application fee of $50, if applicable, will be applied to your student account on Friday, December 5th. You can pay these fees on or after this date. All fees are payable to Delta State University, Student Business Services, Kent Wyatt Hall #131, Cleveland, MS 38733. Please include your student ID# with payments, or you can make a payment through your MyDSU Online Portal. Fees must be paid for you to receive your diploma.
- If graduation requirements will not be completed by the end of the Fall 2025 semester, contact the Registrar's Office via email (registrar@deltastate.edu) to inactivate or move your application by Friday, November 21st. If your name is not removed from the graduation list by the deadline and if you do not meet graduation requirements, you will be responsible for re-applying for graduation and paying the $50 fee for that application as well.

Tickets

- There will be no guest tickets required for the December 2025 Commencement Ceremony. Please note that seating will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Seating for Wheelchair and Easy Access Guests: Limited seating is available for guests in wheelchairs and guests who need easy-access seating. Easy-access seating is reserved for guests who have trouble navigating stairs. This seating will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Commencement Information Meetings via Zoom: Thursday, December 4th at 10 am and 6 pm:

- Zoom link to meet is <https://deltastate.zoom.us/j/96959833873>. There will be no in-person information meeting or practice.
Participants who attend either one of the Commencement Information Meetings will qualify to be included in a drawing to have their graduation fee waived.

Check-In and Line-Up:

- To participate in the ceremony, candidates for graduation must arrive and check in at the Registrar's Office in Kent Wyatt Hall at 8:30 am for the ceremony. *If you are late, you may not be able to participate in the ceremony.
- After picking up your seating card, you will line up in front of the Coliseum (look for the sign for your row). Candidates will march in the processional according to their assigned seating order.
- In the event of rain, candidates will be seated prior to the ceremony.

Professional Photographs:

- A professional photographer, provided through the DSU Alumni Association, will be available inside the Walter Sillers Coliseum. Candidates can be photographed between 8-9 am.

The Ceremony:

- Dress Code:
 - Men: dark pants, shirt, tie, and dark dress shoes
 - Ladies: any color dress, or dark pants and dark dress shoes
 - Cords/Stoles/Medals are allowed for DSU academic honors, and one stole, and pins are allowed for official DSU organizations. NO homemade cords or stoles are permitted. There are no cords/stoles provided for Latin honors.
 - Caps:
 - Please do not decorate your cap. If it is decorated with items that stand up on top of it or hang off from it, you will be asked to remove your cap and wear a temporary replacement. You cannot remove your tassel or alter it in any way.
 - Undergraduate candidates: Wear the tassel on the right. After the degree is conferred, move to the left.
 - Graduate candidates: Wear the tassel on the left. Do not move your tassel after the degree is conferred.
- Do not bring any personal items with you, except for an umbrella in case of rain.
- Use the restroom before getting in line.
- Commencement Program: Printed programs will be available for the candidates during the ceremony. The Program will be available electronically for all guests via a QR code. All candidates, including those not participating in the ceremony, will be included in the program unless their record is marked confidential.
- Conferring the Degree:

- The Graduate students will graduate first followed by the Undergraduate students.
- Graduate Students:
 - Doctoral candidates need to have their hoods unbuttoned and draped over their right arm when approaching the stage.
 - Ed Specialist and Master's Candidates wear their hoods during the entire ceremony.
- Undergraduate Students:
 - Honor diploma recipients will be called first at the beginning of the Bachelor's degree conferral. Each of these candidates will rise and walk towards the stage as they are called. Wait until you are told to walk across the stage to receive your diploma cover. Each one will walk across individually. You will not return to the stage to walk a second time with your degree group.
- Candidates will all rise when the Provost announces their group, but candidates should keep their eyes on the staff instructing them on the floor. They will give the motion to the first few rows to line up and will motion everyone else to sit until it is time for them to walk.
- The DSU President will greet individual candidates after their names are called. Candidates will cross the stage, briefly pause for a photo with the President while shaking his hand and receive their diploma cover.
- Candidates will then proceed down the stairs on the right side of the stage and return to their seats.
- Leaving the Ceremony:
 - At the close of the ceremony, the staff on the floor of the coliseum will guide the recession of candidates.
- Livestream of Ceremonies:
 - The ceremonies will be livestreamed. Please follow the link for the livestream:

Grades, Diplomas, and Transcripts:

- All grades are due to the Registrar's Office by December 15th. We will begin awarding degrees after all the grades are in and have been processed.
- Correspondence grades, incomplete grade removals, and grades from other institutions MUST be in the Registrar's Office by December 15th. If you are missing grades from other institutions, make sure you request an official transcript from that institution to be mailed to: Registrar's Office, Delta State University, Cleveland, MS 38733, after completing your course(s).
- Degrees will be awarded, and diplomas will be printed for students who meet degree requirements once final grades are awarded and GPAs are calculated. Any student who does not meet degree requirements will be notified by the Registrar's Office.
- If you pre-order a transcript, please make sure you select "hold for degree," or you will have to re-order another copy at your own expense once the degree has been posted and final grades have been posted.
- Diplomas will be mailed to you from Parchment. Once the Registrar's Office has submitted the final list of awarded candidates, we will communicate with you the timeline of when you can expect receipt of your diploma. Please be aware that we will not submit our final awarded list to Parchment until January, when we have finished all degree conferrals. Please continue to check your DSU email after graduation, as Parchment will contact you upon receipt of the list to confirm your mailing address.
Please email the Registrar's Office at registrar@deltastate.edu if you have any questions.
- Diplomas are 8.5x11 in size and only display a student's degree type (i.e., Bachelor of Science, Master of Arts, etc.). Major is not included on the diploma but is included on the transcript.
- Latin honors for undergraduate candidates are based on the earned hours and GPA from the last completed term of attendance. To be recognized with Latin honors with distinction in the program during the ceremony, the candidate must have earned at least 60 hours in residence at DSU by the end of the summer 2025 semester and have at least a 3.5 overall DSU GPA. Final Latin honors will be calculated and awarded once final grades are submitted and final GPAs are calculated. The final Latin honors will be posted on the official transcripts of the students who have retained/earned the honor once final grades have been posted.

Financial Aid Exit Counseling

- Financial Aid exit counseling is required for all students who have received Federal Direct Subsidized, Unsubsidized, or Plus loans. Exit Counseling can be completed online at <https://studentaid.gov/>. If you have any questions, please contact the Financial Aid office at finaid@deltastate.edu.
- All undergraduate students who graduate and will be fully admitted to a graduate program for the following semester, must contact the Financial Aid office at finaid@deltastate.edu.
- Perkins Loans exit interviews will be held for all students who have received a Perkins Loan. Please contact Student Business Services at 662-846-4698 regarding times and locations.
- To retrieve Financial Aid Forms click here.

Teacher Certification

- Students eligible for certification through the State Department of Education in Jackson must have National Teachers' Exam Scores and an application for certification on file in the Office of Field Experiences, Ewing 370. Electronic applications for certification are completed on the MDE website: <https://www.mdek12.org/OEL>

What should I do if I don't meet graduation requirements once the grades have been posted, or if I don't pass my Comprehensive exams?

- Your account will be marked as Not Graduated (NG), and your application for graduation for this term will be inactivated.
- You will still be responsible for the $50.00 commencement fee for this semester.
- If you are NG'd for the current semester, we will move your graduation application to the next semester and you will need to pay the second $50.00 commencement fee. Any commencement fees will be waived after the second attempt for the same degree.
- If you walked in this Ceremony, you will not be allowed to return and walk in another ceremony.

Guest Information:

- Guests will not need a ticket in order to attend the ceremony
- If the Walter Sillers Coliseum reaches maximum capacity, additional guests will not be allowed to enter the ceremony. The Commencement live stream can be viewed in real-time for relatives and friends of graduates who are unable to attend and will also be available to watch at a later time.
 - Live Stream Link
- Guests who need wheelchair access or easy-access seating will have access to limited seating on the floor of the coliseum. Easy-access seating is reserved for guests who have trouble navigating stairs. Each guest who needs easy access seating will be allowed to have one companion sit with them. Upon entry to the lobby, let the ushers know if you need access to this seating.
- There is limited handicap parking available at the Coliseum. If you have difficulty finding handicapped parking, please ask the University police for assistance.
- Families and guests are urged to arrive at the doors of the Coliseum at least 45 minutes in advance of the start of the ceremony. Please allow adequate time for parking, walking, and seating in the Coliseum.
- Guests are only allowed to bring a water bottle, a clear bag, umbrellas (in case of rain), and a camera inside the Coliseum. No balloons are allowed in the Coliseum.

- Be respectful. Please express your excitement in ways that will not prevent others from enjoying the ceremony or hearing the names of graduates when announced. Please don't applaud as the other graduates and their guests will not be able to hear their names being read.
- Adherence to the University's tobacco and alcohol policy is required.
- Guests are expected to act in a civilized manner. If they cause disruption before or during the ceremony, they will be warned the first time. If they continue the behavior, they will be escorted out of the building by security and will not be allowed to return to the ceremony.
- No children under the age of 6 will be allowed in the ceremony unless they are the child of the graduating student.
- Cell phones are to be turned off or on silent.
- We ask that guests remain at their seats until the platform party, faculty, and graduates have recessed. Guests in handicap and easy-access seating will be supported in departing the auditorium after the recession.

Delta State University is proud of our students' accomplishments and success. We appreciate your cooperation in celebrating a major milestone in both the students' and their families' lives. We want everyone to share and enjoy a memorable and dignified commencement ceremony.
