

MELFA Goal for 2021-2022 Strategy Planning Session
September 23, 2021

MISSION to support personal and professional growth of educational leaders to impact teaching, leading, and learning in Mississippi.

VISION to provide a mechanism for collaboration among educational leadership faculty across the state of Mississippi in order to present a collective voice to advocate for policy and practice yielding highly effective P-16 educational programs.

2021-2022 Focus/Goal

Internally and Externally, create a professional learning community of educational leadership faculty that provides a forum for staying abreast of issues and trends facing administrators and using this information to strengthen the relevance of educational leadership courses/programs.

Please use the 5 C's below to guide your discussion regarding strategies we might consider to enact our current year goal. (from Brene' Brown, Dare to Lead)

Color:

What are we doing and why? We agreed upon the goal in our last session. See above.

Context:

- A. What would our professional learning communities discuss/learn together? What are the most pressing trends that we, as an organization, could guide our EPP faculty and practitioners through effectively? Ensure the topics you recommend align with our vision and mission. Consider the work we have already done as a topic that could drive shared learning in our PLC for both internal and external stakeholders.

Connective Tissue:

- A. How does this connect to the work, mission, and vision of MELFA? What resources do we have at our disposal to enact our goal? Can we leverage what we have already done?

- B. What strategies would you recommend to enact our PLC? What are your ideas for executing the development and delivery of a PLC? What is the role for existing committees? Are existing committees sufficient? Do we need partnerships?

Cost:

What is the cost of the strategy you are proposing? Do we have partnerships or other resources to cover the cost?

Consequence:

What will be the impact of the strategy you are proposing? Will it help us attain our goal? What would you hope to achieve as a result of the strategy you propose?
