Discussion

- BPAC Tickets.....Lucia Chacon
 - Lucia announced that SGA has sponsored events hosted by the BPAC in the past. She emailed Lori Vallow, the executive director of the BPAC, to see what options are best. Option 1, SGA could match the BPAC's 20%, option 2, SGA could cover 50% of the cost, and option 3, students could pay $10 or 20 for a ticket and SGA could cover the rest of the costs.
 - On motion by Michael Tucker and seconded by Madison Lavoie, the floor was opened for discussion on the sponsoring options for BPAC tickets. All cabinet members present and participating voted unanimously for option 2, to cover 50% of the cost of 30 tickets for the terrace only and to spend $1800 for both events hosted by the BPAC on Oct. 20th and Nov. 15th.

- Homecoming elections.....Kelly Foster and Lucia Chacon
 - Kelly announced that homecoming elections will start Thursday Oct. 6th on canvas until Friday. The ballot will open Wednesday night and close at midnight on Friday. Kelly announced that she needs the pictures and transcripts of those running for homecoming court by Wednesday at 5:00 pm. Lucia announced that the ballot will pop up in your canvas shell as a normal quiz, and it will appear on your to do list.
