

Outdoors + Kids = Recreation & Activity

What is O.K.R.A.?

Outdoors + Kids + Recreation and Activity (O.K.R.A.) is a summer day camp providing youth ages 6 – 11 a week-long opportunity to participate in structured indoor and outdoor recreational activities. The camp provides developmentally appropriate instruction fostering active participation in lifelong recreational sports and activities. Kayaking, disc golf, floor hockey, interactive and team-building games, non-competitive team sports, and numerous other recreational activities are some of the fun activities found at camp.

Mission

Our mission is to provide an active, positive, and exciting environment for youth to participate in a variety of recreational opportunities.

Ages/Dates/Times

Ages 6-8: *May 28–June 1. *Camp will start Holiday Monday.

Ages 9-11: June 4– June 8.

9 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. Monday-Thursday | Friday, 1p.m. dismissal.

Staffing

O.K.R.A. Day Camp is directed and supervised by recreation professionals. Each recreation leader is first-aid and CPR certified.

Location:

O.K.R.A. Day Camp is hosted on the Delta State University campus at the Forest E. Wyatt Center. The camp utilizes many facilities and fields on the DSU campus including the aquatic center, intramural field, and quadrangle. Each camper is required to bring a towel, swimming suit, sunscreen, water bottle, and a healthy snack and lunch. A schedule for days that require swim attire will be provided once registered.

Enrollment:

Due to staffing ratios of 15-1 and facility use policies, camp is limited to 180 participants on a *first come, first served basis. In order to fully enroll a child, you must:

1. Fill out an enrollment form – located ONLY in Forest E. Wyatt Center;
2. Sign an informed consent and complete a lifestyle survey;
3. Sign a youth release of liability form;
4. Pay a $25 per youth registration fee; (CASH or CHECK ONLY) and
5. Drop off all registration materials to camp headquarters at Forest E. Wyatt Center with the division secretary.

The first 180 applications with fully completed enrollment forms, surveys, and liability waivers, submitted by May 4, by 5:00 p.m. will be admitted.
