

Dissertation Research

The Institutional Research Office is responsible for collecting and reporting all data for Delta State. We provide demographic data, graduation rates, credit hour production and many other types of data information that will help you in your research. Please contact our office at 662-846-4050 or by email ir@deltastate.edu for more information.