AMZIE MOORE HOUSE MUSEUM & INTERPRETIVE CENTER

OPEN HOUSE & PRE-CONFERENCE PROGRAM 2018 WINNING THE RACE CONFERENCE

The public is invited to attend the Amzie Moore House Museum & Interpretive Center's Open House scheduled for 2pm – 6pm on Sunday afternoon, March 26th, 2017. Visitors may come and go at their leisure to explore the historic home and the history of the Cleveland community's local civil rights movement.

A special press conference will begin at 3pm at the Center to recognize and honor local civil rights advocates and Veterans of the Mississippi Civil Rights Movement, Inc. The event serves as a pre-conference kickoff to the fifth annual Winning the Race conference presented by Delta State University. Event hosts include Mr James McBride and Mr. Will Hooker of the Bolivar County Board of Supervisors Chairman and DSU President William N. LaForge. In partnership with the Bolivar County Board of Supervisors and Veterans of the Mississippi Civil Rights Movement, Inc. the university will recognize Flonzie Brown Wright, Mae Bertha Carter (posthumously), & Ruben Smith, Sr. (posthumously).

Please join us as we honor the notable work of each of these individuals! All conference activities are open and free to the public but space is limited. Please register for the conference online at www.deltastate.edu/winningtherace. For more information about the event, contact Delta State University archivist Mrs. Emily Jones at ejones@deltastate.edu.
