IFC Formal Recruitment Rules for Potential Members

1. All potential members (PMs) must register for IFC Formal Recruitment, pay a twenty ($20.00) dollar Recruitment fee before Recruitment begins, and attend a mandatory Welcome Meeting on Tuesday, August 30th at 9:00 p.m. in H. L. Nowell Union 302A.
2. Formal Recruitment Rounds:
  - a. The first night of Recruitment, PMs must attend all Recruitment events. If a PM cannot attend one or more of the events that night, he will be prohibited from attending all events that evening*. Personal problems/conflicts must be immediately reported to the IFC Advisor who will notify the IFC President and Executive Committee.
  - b. The second night of Recruitment, a PM may attend a maximum of three (3) events, or less, if he receives less than 3 invitations. If the PM receives four (4) invitations, he must regret one since there will only be up to three rounds for events.
  - c. The third night, Preference Night of Recruitment, attendance choices must be selected from invitations offered. A PM may go to a maximum of two (2) events the final night of Recruitment. A PM must attend all parties to which he accepts an invitation, but may not attend two events of the same fraternity. After Preference Night events, a PM may receive up to four (4) Bids. He is only allowed to accept one (1) Bid. This will occur in the presence of the IFC Advisor only.

**If you have a conflict, please contact your superior (i.e. contact your Instructor/ Professor, if a night class conflict) to ask for an excuse to participate in Formal Recruitment. If you are unable to be excused to participate, contact the IFC Advisor, Jeanna Dacey Wilkes by phone at 662.846.4666 or email at jdwilkes@deltastate.edu.*
